THRILLED BY NEW MINIMUM WAGE LAW CAN WE MAKE AN OCCASION OF THE SIGNING

FELICE J LOURIA.

357 FOURTH AVE.
NEW YORK

April 28th, 1937.

Hon. Herbert H. Lehman,
State Capitol,
Albany, New York.

Dear Governor:

I hope you will sign the Fair Wage bill which is now before you as an amendment in the labor laws. It has been carefully studied and approved by the Legal Aid Society, of which I am a director, and I sincerely believe that it will supply a needed and helpful safeguard to the wage earners of the State.

Yours very respectfully,

Charles C. Smith

Dear Sir:

RECEIVED
MAY 1 1937

I'm writing this letter in reference to the "Minimum Wage" law for women.
Will you please send me some information in answer to the following questions:

Does this law affect office help?

What is the minimum wage?

When is the law to go into effect?

Trusting to receive an early reply, I remain,

Very truly yours,
Mildred Fenster
