INTRODUCTION

The Joint Commission on Public Ethics (the “Commission”) was established by the Public Integrity Reform Act of 2011 (PIRA)ⁱ to oversee and regulate ethics and lobbying in New York State. It commenced operation on December 14, 2011. (See Executive Law §94 attached hereto as Appendix A.) The Commission has broad regulatory authority and oversight over the four statewide elected officials, candidates for those offices, executive branch employees, State legislators, candidates for the Legislature, legislative branch employees, and certain political party chairs, as well as lobbyists and their clients. The Commission’s statutory mandate includes providing information, education, and advice regarding current ethics and lobbying laws, and promoting compliance with these laws through audits, investigations, and enforcement proceedings.

Pursuant to Section 94(9)(l) of the Executive Law and Section (1-d)(g) of the Legislative Law (the “Lobbying Act”), this annual report summarizes the activities of the Commission in 2014, and includes data relating to ethics and lobbying regulation. Traditionally, the annual report highlights some of the Commission's achievements over the course of the preceding year. This year, however, the Commission issued a special report to the Governor and legislative leaders on February 2, 2015 (in accordance with Executive Law §94(1)) (the “February 2015 Report”) that fully details the Commission’s activities over the past three years. This included the: administration and improvement of procedures relating to the new disclosure requirements in PIRA; review of hundreds of complaints, tips, and referrals resulting in 60 settlements and $500,000 in fines and assessments; annually processing of more than 27,000 Financial Disclosure Statements (“FDS”) filed by State officials and more than 43,000 disclosure filings by lobbyists and their clients; and significantly expanding the Commission's advisory and guidance platform with new educational materials and training programs. The Commission also proposed several areas for legislative reforms and further study designed to improve compliance with the ethics laws and regulations, enhance the accountability of public officials and those who seek to influence government decision-making, and increase the transparency of the Commission's actions.

Due to the large scope of the February 2015 Report, this annual report will, therefore, be limited to information concerning lobbying activity, investigations, and training programs conducted in 2014.

Lobbying activity for 2014 set new records with $226 million in total spending and $194.2 million in compensation paid to retained and employed lobbyists. The 2014 lobbying spending included $15.8 million in advertising expenses. The top-spending lobbying entity in 2014, Families for Excellent Schools, reported spending $9.6 million on advertising and event-related expenses. The next highest spending lobbying entity was the New York State United Teachers which reported $3.2 million in lobbying expenditures. Education-related lobbying, including charter schools, teacher tenure and evaluations, and the education tax credit, made up the majority ($15.6 million) of the nearly $25 million spent by the top 10 lobbying entities in 2014. Other top spenders for the year included the Greater NY Hospital Association, No More Casinos Coalition, Inc. (a gambling industry-funded coalition against a potential Native-American casino in Monroe County), the Public Campaign Action Fund, the Public Employees Federation, the Trial Lawyers Association, Inc., and AARP.

Separately, in conjunction with this annual report, the Commission will publish in spreadsheet format on its website the complete data filed by lobbyists and their clients for 2014. Additional summaries of lobbying data are included in this report. The full 2014 listing of lobbyists and public corporations and their financial data is attached hereto as Appendix B.

ⁱ Chapter 399 of the Laws of 2011.

The Public Integrity Reform Act of 2011

The Commission was formally constituted in December of 2011 pursuant to PIRA. The Commission continued the lobbying and ethics oversight functions of its predecessor agencies with regulatory authority over the four statewide elected officials, candidates for those offices, executive branch employees, State legislators, candidates for the Legislature and legislative branch employees, as well as, certain political party chairs, and lobbyists and their clients.

The Commission is made up of 14 commissioners, three appointed by the Temporary President of the Senate, three appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly, one appointed by the Minority Leader of the Senate, one appointed by the Minority Leader of the Assembly, and six appointed by the Governor and the Lieutenant Governor. The Commission chairperson is selected by the Governor. Terms for commissioners vary and are set forth in Executive Law §94.

The Commission meets at a minimum bimonthly and appoints an executive director to run the functions and administration of the agency.

Ms. Tagliafierro received her Bachelor of Arts degree from the State University of New York at Albany and her law degree from the Albany Law School of Union University.

Structure and Staffing of the Agency

The Commission has adopted a staffing plan for the agency as required by Executive Law §94. The Commission maintains a statewide presence with offices in Albany, New York City and Buffalo, extending its coverage to the tens of thousands of State officers and employees, legislative members and employees, and registered lobbyists and clients located throughout the State.

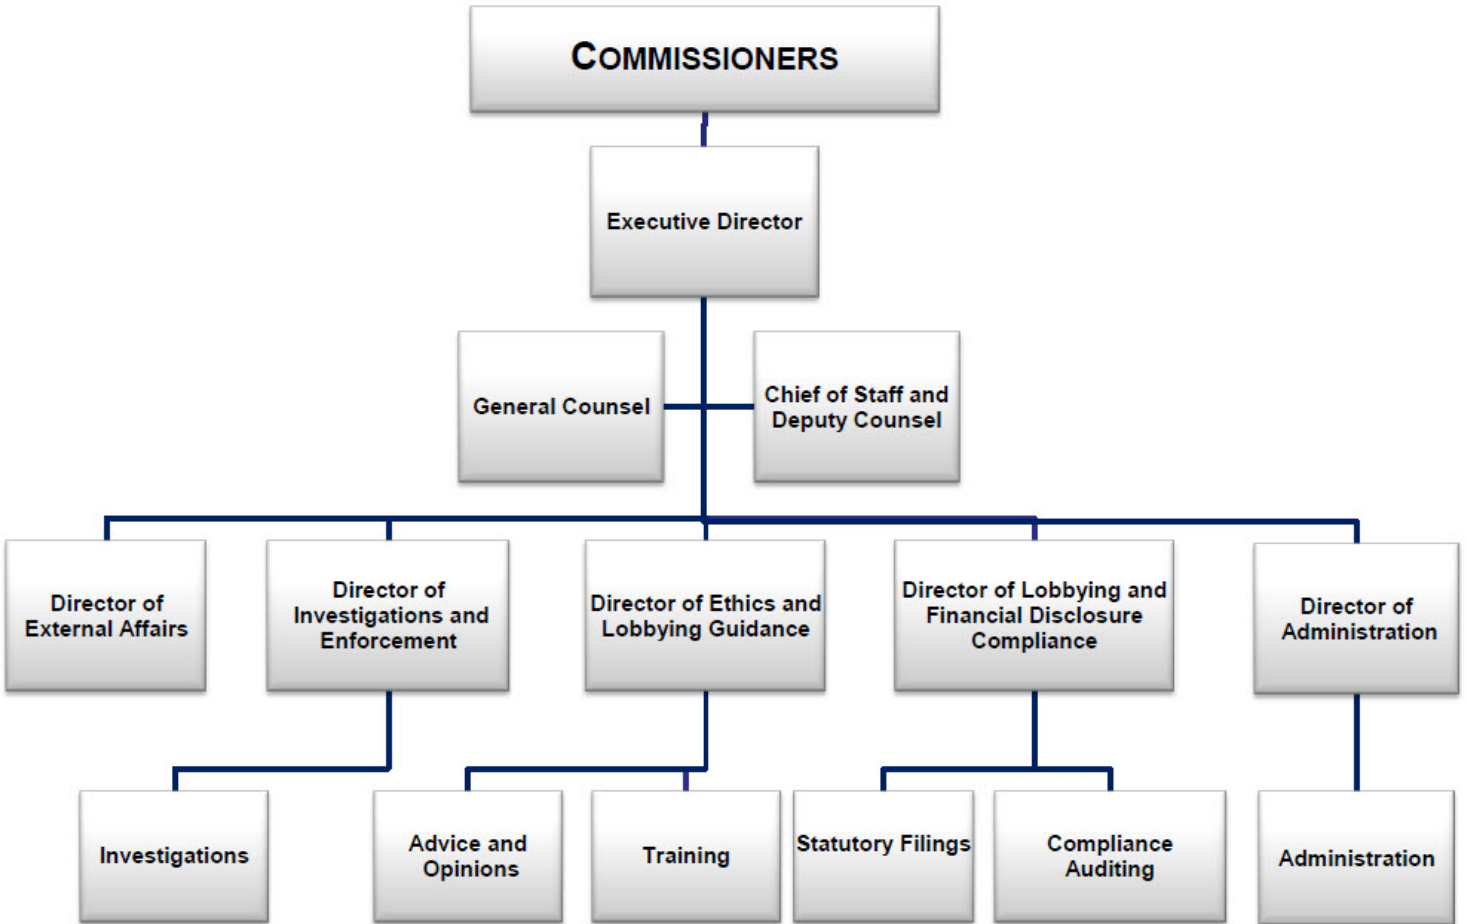

The Commission currently employs approximately 45 employees including attorneys, investigators, auditors, filing specialists, and administrative staff. While the agency's staffing level remains relatively low, it has successfully preserved productivity within existing programs and continues to meet critical statutory mandates.

The agency and its staff are organized into five divisions consistent with its multiple statutory and administrative functions in order to maximize productivity and efficiency:

- 1) Ethics and Lobbying Guidance, which manages the advisory functions of the agency, including providing daily guidance to the regulatory community, drafting regulations and guidelines to clarify legal issues, and developing educational and training programs on the ethics and lobbying laws;
- 2) Lobbying and Financial Disclosure Compliance, which administers the Commission's two statutory filing programs – annual Financial Disclosure Statements under Public Officers Law §73-a and required filings under the Lobbying Act – and conducts the audit and review programs pursuant to which a portion of these filings are examined each year on a random basis;
- 3) Investigations and Enforcement, which handles the intake and review of complaints alleging violations of the Public Officers Law and Lobbying Act, conducts substantial basis investigations commenced by the Commission, and represents the Commission before an independent hearing officer adjudicating appropriate penalties for violations;
- 4) External Affairs, which oversees the Commission's external communications, the release of public information, content on the Commission's website, requests for public records, and public meetings; and
- 5) Administration, which manages the Commission's day-to-day administrative needs, including office management, financial transactions, and personnel matters.

The current executive team consists of Monica J. Stamm, the Chief of Staff and Deputy Counsel, who assists the Executive Director with managing the agency, and the following division directors, who report to the Executive Director: Stephen Boland, the Director for Administration; Pei Pei Cheng-deCastro, the Director of Investigations and Enforcement, Robert Cohen, the Director of Ethics and Lobbying Guidance and Special Counsel; Martin Levine, the Director of Lobbying and Financial Disclosure Compliance and Senior Counsel; and John Milgrim, the Director of External Affairs.

TRAINING AND EDUCATION

Training and Educational Services

The Commission's Training and Education Group is committed to creating and maintaining a comprehensive and dynamic educational program to ensure that public officers and employees, lobbyists, and clients are fully informed about the laws, regulations, and guidelines the Commission administers and enforces. Among other things, the Training and Education Group has developed instructor-led trainings on the State's ethics and lobbying laws, designed web-based programming on a variety of topics, and produced a library of written educational materials which are available on the Commission's website.

Significantly, ethics training is now mandatory for those State elected officials, officers, and employees who are required to file a Financial Disclosure Statement ("FDS") with JCOPE, which includes policy makers and those earning above a certain salary threshold. In 2013, the Commission's Training and Education Group introduced the first of these trainings. The "Comprehensive Ethics Training Course" ("CETC") is a two-hour, live training for FDS filers and is available for CLE credit.

As the most efficient means of providing the CETC to approximately 30,000 FDS filers across New York State, in 2013, the Commission presented the CETC in a "Train-the-Trainer" format to more than 300 Ethics Officers, trainers, and employees from New York State agencies, public authorities, commissions, councils and boards (collectively known as "State Agencies"). This Train-the-Trainer program enabled State Agencies to conduct their own CETC sessions in order for their FDS filers to meet the statutory deadlines for completing this mandatory ethics training. In 2014, the Commission and State Agencies continued to present the CETC to FDS filers. The considerable effort by State Agencies to comply with this new training mandate illustrates the shared commitment to ethics and restoring trust in government. The Commission is working closely with the State Ethics

Officers to assist in the effort to maintain and monitor compliance with the CETC requirements going forward.

In April 2014, the Training and Education Group developed the second of the three mandated ethics trainings for FDS filers entitled the "Online Ethics Orientation." This orientation represents an expansion into interactive web-based training sessions. Utilizing the Statewide Learning Management System, which enables users to login to a statewide platform to find and track required training, this Orientation is accessible to individuals at their workstations. The new Online Ethics Orientation must be completed by State officers and employees newly-subject to the FDS filing requirement within three months of qualifying employment unless they have taken the live CETC. As of the date of this report, more than 1,000 FDS filers have completed the online orientation.

As a result of the significant and collective effort of JCOPE staff and State Agency Ethics Officers over the past two years, nearly 26,000 FDS filers have received ethics training.

This year, the Training and Education Group is developing the third required training for State officers and employees, a live Ethics Seminar that will provide an overview of changes in the relevant laws, regulations, and policies, and will include a question and answer session.

According to information provided by the Legislative Ethics Commission ("LEC"), the Legislature similarly achieved meaningful results. A mandatory ethics training program was implemented by the Legislature pursuant to Section 94(10)(d) of the Executive Law and Section 80 of the Legislative Law. This training program was provided by the Legislature, assisted by the LEC. Additionally, the LEC has developed and fully implemented an online ethics orientation course which all new legislative employees are required to complete within three months of being hired. All legislators, including newly elected members have completed a comprehensive training course, and more than ninety percent of employees have completed ethics training.

Finally, in the fall of 2014, the Commission introduced an online training course entitled “Ethics for Lobbyists.” In accordance with the Lobbying Act, this new program provides an overview of State laws concerning ethics, including the Public Officers Law, the Lobbying Act, and the Election Law and is mandatory for registered lobbyists every three years. As of the date of this report, more than 3,000 lobbyists have completed the ethics training program.

LOBBYING OVERVIEW

2014 Lobbying Data

During the lobbying year ending December 31, 2014, 6,939 individual lobbyists were reported on 4,710 lobbyist registrations filed with the Commission, representing 4,607 clients. In addition, 19 public corporations registered as lobbyists and filed reports on behalf of themselves. (Lobbying Act §§1-c(i), 1-e, and 1-i.) During the same period, 86 public corporations retained lobbyists and filed as clients of these lobbyists.

The Commission's staff continued to encourage lobbyists and clients to use the online filing system. Electronic filers are able to view the status of their filings online and make necessary changes immediately.

- ✦ In 2014, approximately 98 percent of lobbyists and 54 percent of clients used the online filing system to submit their registrations and reports.
- ✦ The online application automatically notifies filers of minor filing errors prior to submission and prompts the filer for corrections. This has significantly reduced staff's manual processing of paper filings.

All filings received by the Commission are reviewed for completeness. In 2014, more than 43,000 filings and lobbying contracts were reviewed and processed. Additionally, more than 200 client filings disclosed the identities of sources of funds used for lobbying activities, and more than 25 lobbyists and clients disclosed reportable business relationships, in accordance with the Lobbying Act and the Commission's regulations and guidelines.

The Commission's oversight extends to lobbyists and clients attempting to influence any local law, ordinance, rule, regulation or rate pending before certain municipalities or its subdivisions. (Lobbying Act §1-c(k).) A total of 448 registrations were filed for lobbyists active on only local issues, but more than 2,100 registrations were filed for lobbyists active on both local and State issues. Thus, more than half of the 4,710 lobbyist registrations filed indicate at least some local lobbying. The Commission's jurisdiction also extends to procurement lobbying on the State and local level. Approximately 24 percent of all lobbying registrations reported procurement lobbying activities.

According to the client and lobbyist reports filed, 2014 saw record amounts for total spending and total compensation paid to lobbyists. A record total $226.0 million in lobbying spending was reported for the year, representing an increase of approximately 8 percent as compared to 2013. Compensation to retained and employee lobbyists increased by $3.2 million over the record set in 2013, to $194.2 million. The increase in total spending was due in part to the $15.8 million reported for advertising expenses, a 228 percent increase over 2013 levels of advertising expenses. Event-related expenses also rose significantly in 2014, to $1.03 million, a 41.1 percent increase from 2013. The 2014 top-spending lobbying entity, Families for Excellent Schools, reported $9.6 million, entirely within advertising and event-related expenses – which alone accounts for much of the aggregate increase in state and local lobbying spending from 2013 to 2014. The next highest 2014 spending total for a single lobbying entity was $3.2 million by the New York State United Teachers.

Pursuant to statute, the complete 2014 listing of lobbyists and public corporations including compensation and reimbursed expenses is attached hereto as Appendix B. Separately, in conjunction with this annual report, the Commission will publish in spreadsheet format on its website the complete data filed by lobbyists and their clients for 2014. These spreadsheets give the public ease of access to, and the ability to perform custom analyses of, the data thereby increasing transparency.

Note on methodology: In an effort to present the most accurate and representative information possible, the Commission conducted sampling of lobbying reports filed in 2014. Where appropriate, certain data that were reported by a lobbyist, but did not appear in the corresponding client filing were included in calculations used to generate certain aggregate metrics.

INVESTIGATIONS AND ENFORCEMENT

Overview

The Commission is charged with investigating potential violations of the State's ethics laws (Public Officers Law §§73, 73-a, and 74), the "Little Hatch Act" (Civil Service Law §107), and the Lobbying Act (Legislative Law article 1-A). The Commission has jurisdiction to investigate violations of law by the four statewide elected officials, candidates for those offices, executive branch employees, members of or candidates for the Legislature and legislative branch employees, certain political party chairs, lobbyists, and their clients.

Investigations may be conducted on the Commission's own initiative, based on referrals from other governmental entities, or in response to information provided by the public. The Commission's procedures for submitting tips and filing complaints alleging violations of the Public Officers Law or the Lobbying Act are available on the Commission's website. In 2014, the Commission also launched a new website and hotline (1-800-87-ETHICS) for the reporting of misconduct at www.reportmisconduct.ny.gov.

Under Executive Law §94, prior to commencing an investigation, the Commission must provide the person or entity subject to the Commission's jurisdiction with notice of any alleged violation of law and a fifteen-day period in which to respond to such allegations. This notice is commonly referred to as a "fifteen-day letter." The Commission must then vote on whether or not to commence a full investigation to determine whether a substantial basis exists to conclude that a violation of law has occurred.

If the Commission votes to commence an investigation, the person or entity subject to the Commission's jurisdiction will be provided with notice and an opportunity to respond in writing to the allegations. After conducting an investigation, the Commission must determine whether there is a substantial basis to conclude that a violation of law occurred. If the Commission makes such a finding, then it publicly issues a "Substantial Basis Investigation Report" which sets forth the alleged violations of law.

The Commission has jurisdiction to enforce penalties for violations by executive branch officers and employees, lobbyists, and clients. The Commission has issued regulations governing the conduct of adjudicatory proceedings relating to the assessment of civil penalties. To ensure fairness of the proceedings, adjudications are conducted by independent hearing officers who are selected randomly from a pool of hearing officers. These regulations also cover appeals taken from hearing officer final decisions, and appeals of denials of requests to delete or exempt certain information from an FDS. In the event that the Commission finds a substantial basis to conclude that such a violation has occurred by members of or candidates for the Legislature and legislative employees, it presents its Substantial Basis Investigation Report to the LEC, which may then assess penalties pursuant to its own adjudicatory regulations that are available on its website at www.legethics.com.

Information concerning the Commission's enforcement actions, including its settlement agreements, is published on the Commission's website.

2014 Review and Disposition of Investigative Matters

In 2014, the Commission reviewed over 200 potential matters. In general, allegations cover a broad range of potential violations of the Public Officers Law, including failure to file annual financial disclosure statements, conflicts of interests, improper gifts, nepotism, and post-employment issues. In addition, some matters involved possible violations of the Lobbying Act, including failure to register as a lobbyist and failure to submit required filings.

In 2014, the Commission issued 52 fifteen-day letters. As discussed below, many of these matters were resolved through settlement agreements, but five are continuing investigations. At the end of 2014, the Commission had 10 open investigations and 70 matters pending review.

In 2014, the Commission’s investigations and enforcement actions resulted in penalties totaling approximately $58,572. The Commission settled 28 matters: 26 involving the Public Officers Law and 2 involving the Lobbying Act. These enforcement actions involved a range of violations, including abuse of office, nepotism, accepting prohibited gifts, violations of the post-employment restrictions, disclosing confidential information, and failing to file required disclosures with the Commission. The Commission also conducted three public hearings on enforcement actions under the Lobbying Act.

Not all investigative matters warrant enforcement action. In some cases, based on the facts, the Commission concluded that the public interest would be better served by providing education and guidance to prevent future violations. In 2014, the Commission exercised its discretion to resolve some investigative matters with “guidance letters” setting forth the appropriate legal and regulatory considerations to guide future conduct.

The Commission continues to develop relationships with law enforcement partners and also has entered into ongoing dialogues with agencies, agency counsel, ethics officers, and other agency personnel. The Commission also collaborates with State agencies to efficiently resolve disciplinary matters that involve violations under the Commission’s jurisdiction.

A chart summarizing all of the Commission’s enforcement activity in 2014 follows below.

1. There is established within the department of state a joint commission on public ethics which shall consist of fourteen members and shall have and exercise the powers and duties set forth in this section with respect to statewide elected officials, members of the legislature and employees of the legislature, and state officers and employees, as defined in sections seventy-three and seventy-three-a of the public officers law, candidates for statewide elected office and for the senate or assembly, and the political party chairman as that term is defined in section seventy-three-a of the public officers law, lobbyists and the clients of lobbyists as such terms are defined in article one-A of the legislative law, and individuals who have formerly held such positions, were lobbyists or clients of lobbyists, as such terms are defined in article one-A of the legislative law, or who have formerly been such candidates. This section shall not be deemed to have revoked or rescinded any regulations or advisory opinions issued by the legislative ethics commission, the commission on public integrity, the state ethics commission and the temporary lobbying commission in effect upon the effective date of chapter fourteen of the laws of two thousand seven which amended this section to the extent that such regulations or opinions are not inconsistent with any law of the state of New York, but such regulations and opinions shall apply only to matters over which such commissions had jurisdiction at the time such regulations and opinions were promulgated or issued. The commission shall undertake a comprehensive review of all such regulations and opinions, which will address the consistency of such regulations and opinions among each other and with the new statutory language, and of the effectiveness of the existing laws, regulations, guidance and ethics enforcement structure to address the ethics of covered public officials and related parties. Such review shall be conducted with the legislative ethics commission and, to the extent possible, the report's findings shall reflect the full input and deliberations of both commissions after joint consultation. The commission shall, before February first, two thousand fifteen, report to the governor and legislature regarding such review and shall propose any regulatory or statutory changes and issue any advisory opinions necessitated by such review.
2. The members of the commission shall be appointed as follows: three members shall be appointed by the temporary president of the senate, three members shall be

In the event that a vacancy arises with respect to a member of the commission first appointed pursuant to the chapter of the laws of two thousand eleven which amended this subdivision by a legislative leader, the legislative leaders of the same political party in the same house shall appoint a member to fill such vacancy irrespective of whether that legislative leader's political party is in the majority or minority. Of the members appointed by the governor and the lieutenant governor, at least three members shall be and shall have been for at least three years enrolled members of the major political party in which the governor is not enrolled. In the event of a vacancy in a position previously appointed by the governor and lieutenant governor, the governor and lieutenant governor shall appoint a member of the same political party as the member that vacated that position. Prior to making their respective appointments, the governor and the lieutenant governor and the legislative leaders shall solicit and receive recommendations for appointees from the attorney general and the comptroller of the state of New York, which recommendations shall be fully and properly considered but shall not be binding.

No individual shall be eligible for appointment as a member of the commission who currently or within the last three years:

No individual shall be eligible for appointment as a member of the commission who currently or within the last year is or has been a state officer or employee or legislative employee as defined in section seventy-three of the public officers law.

4. The governor shall designate the chairman of the commission from among the members thereof, who shall serve as chairman at the pleasure of the governor. The chairman or any eight members of the commission may call a meeting.
5. Any vacancy occurring on the commission shall be filled within thirty days of its occurrence in the same manner as the member whose vacancy is being filled was appointed. A person appointed to fill a vacancy occurring other than by expiration of a term of office shall be appointed for the unexpired term of the member he or she succeeds.
6. Eight members of the commission shall constitute a quorum, and the commission shall have power to act by majority vote of the total number of members of the commission without vacancy except where the commission acts pursuant to subdivision thirteen, subdivision fourteen-a or subdivision fourteen-b of this section.
7. Members of the commission may be removed by the appointing authority solely for substantial neglect of duty, gross misconduct in office, violation of the confidentiality restrictions in subdivision nine-a of this section, inability to discharge the powers or duties of office or violation of this section, after written notice and opportunity for a reply.
8. Such rules and regulations shall provide for exemptions to be granted either on the application of an individual or on behalf of persons who share the same job title or employment classification which the commission deems to be comparable for purposes of this section. Such rules and regulations may permit the granting of an exemption where, in the discretion of the commission, the public interest does not require disclosure and the applicant's duties do not involve the negotiation, authorization or approval of:

- (m) Determine a question common to a class or defined category of persons or items of information required to be disclosed, where determination of the question will prevent undue repetition of requests for exemption or deletion or prevent undue complication in complying with the requirements of such section; and
- (n) Promulgate guidelines for the commission to conduct a program of random reviews, to be carried out in the following manner: (i) annual statements of financial disclosure shall be selected for review in a manner pursuant to which the identity of any particular person whose statement is selected is unknown to the commission and its staff prior to its selection; (ii) such review shall include a preliminary examination of the selected statement for internal consistency, a comparison with other records maintained by the commission, including previously filed statements and requests for advisory opinions, and examination of relevant public information; (iii) upon completion of the preliminary examination, the commission shall determine whether further inquiry is warranted, whereupon it shall notify the reporting individual in writing that the statement is under review, advise the reporting individual of the specific areas of inquiry, and provide the reporting individual with the opportunity to provide any relevant information related to the specific areas of inquiry, and the opportunity to file amendments to the selected statement on forms provided by the commission; and (iv) if thereafter sufficient cause exists, the commission shall take additional actions, as appropriate and consistent with law.

10. The commission shall prepare materials and design and administer an ethics training program for individuals subject to the financial disclosure requirements of section seventy-three-a of the public officers law with respect to the provisions of sections seventy-three, seventy-three-a, and seventy-four of the public officers law and any other law, administrative regulation, or internal policy that is of relevance to the ethical conduct of such individuals in public service, as follows:

(a) The commission shall develop and administer a comprehensive ethics training course and shall designate and train instructors to conduct such training. Such course shall be designed as a two-hour program and shall include practical application of the material covered and a question-and-answer participatory segment. Unless the commission grants an extension or waiver for good cause shown, all individuals subject to the financial disclosure requirements of section seventy-three-a of the public officers law shall complete such course within two years of the effective date of the chapter of the laws of two thousand eleven which amended this section, or for those individuals elected or appointed after the effective date of the chapter of the laws of two thousand eleven which amended this section, within two years of becoming subject to the financial disclosure requirements of section seventy-three-a of the public officers law.

(b) The commission shall develop and administer an online ethics orientation course and shall notify all individuals newly subject to the financial disclosure requirements of section seventy-three-a of the public officers law of such course, which shall be completed by such individuals within three months of becoming subject to such requirements, unless the commission grants an extension or waiver for good cause shown. Individuals who have completed the comprehensive ethics training course shall not be required to complete the online ethics orientation course.

(c) The commission shall develop and administer an ethics seminar or ethics seminars for individuals who have previously completed the comprehensive ethics training course. Such seminars shall be designed as ninety-minute programs and shall include any changes in law, regulation, or policy or in the interpretation thereof, practical application of the material covered, and a question-and-answer segment. Unless the commission grants an extension or waiver for good cause shown, such individuals shall be scheduled to attend a seminar at least once every three years after having completed the comprehensive ethics training course. In lieu of attending an ethics seminar, such individuals may complete a subsequent comprehensive ethics training program.

(d) The provisions of this subdivision shall be applicable to the legislature except to the extent that an ethics training program is otherwise established by the assembly or senate for their respective members and employees and such program meets or exceeds each of the requirements set forth in this section.

(e) On an annual basis, the joint commission in coordination with the legislative ethics commission shall determine the status of compliance with these training requirements by each state agency and by the senate and the assembly. Such determination shall include aggregate statistics regarding participation in such training, and shall be reported to the governor and the legislature in writing.

11. The commission, or the executive director and staff of the commission if responsibility therefor has been delegated, shall inspect all financial disclosure statements filed with the commission to ascertain whether any person subject to the reporting requirements of section seventy-three-a of the public officers law has failed to file such a statement, has filed a deficient statement or has filed a statement which reveals a possible violation of section seventy-three, seventy-three-a or seventy-four of the public officers law.

12. If a person required to file a financial disclosure statement with the commission has failed to file a disclosure statement or has filed a deficient statement, the commission shall notify the reporting person in writing, state the failure to file or detail the deficiency, provide the person with a fifteen day period to cure the deficiency, and advise the person of the penalties for failure to comply with the reporting requirements. Such notice shall be confidential. If the person fails to make such filing or fails to cure the deficiency within the specified time period, the commission shall send a notice of delinquency: (a) to the reporting person; (b) in the case of a statewide elected official, member of the legislature, or a legislative employee, to the temporary president of the senate and the speaker of the assembly; and (c) in the case of a state officer or employee, to the appointing authority for such person. Such notice of delinquency may be sent at any time during the reporting person's service as a statewide elected official, state officer or employee, member of the assembly or the senate, or a legislative employee or a political party chair or while a candidate for statewide office, or within one year after termination of such service or candidacy. The jurisdiction of the commission, when acting pursuant to subdivision fourteen of this section with respect to financial disclosure, shall continue notwithstanding that the reporting person separates from state service, or ceases to hold public or political party office, or ceases to be a candidate, provided the commission notifies such person of the alleged failure to file or deficient filing pursuant to this subdivision.

- 13. (a) Investigations. If the commission receives a sworn complaint alleging a violation of section seventy-three, seventy-three-a, or seventy-four of the public officers law, section one hundred seven of the civil service law or article one-A of the legislative law by a person or entity subject to the jurisdiction of the commission including members of the legislature and legislative employees and candidates for member of the legislature, or if a reporting individual has filed a statement which reveals a possible violation of these provisions, or if the commission determines on its own initiative to investigate a possible violation, the commission shall notify the individual in writing, describe the possible or alleged violation of such laws and provide the person with a fifteen day period in which to submit a written response setting forth information relating to the activities cited as a possible or alleged violation of law. The commission shall, within forty-five calendar days after a complaint or a referral is received or an investigation is initiated on the commission's own initiative, vote on whether to commence a full investigation of the matter under consideration to determine whether a substantial basis exists to conclude that a violation of law has occurred. The staff of the joint commission shall provide to the members prior to such vote information regarding the likely scope and content of the investigation, and a subpoena plan, to the extent such information is available. Such investigation shall be conducted if at least eight members of the commission vote to authorize it. Where the subject of such investigation is a member of the legislature or a legislative employee or a candidate for member of the legislature, at least two of the eight or more members who so vote to authorize such an investigation must have been appointed by a legislative leader or leaders from the major political party in which the subject of the proposed investigation is enrolled if such person is enrolled in a major political party. Where the subject of such investigation is a state officer or state employee, at least two of the eight or more members who so vote to authorize such an investigation must have been appointed by the governor and lieutenant governor. Where the subject of such investigation is a statewide elected official or a direct appointee of such an official, at least two of the eight or more members who so vote to authorize such an investigation must have been appointed by the governor and lieutenant governor and be enrolled in the major political party in which the subject of the proposed investigation is enrolled, if such person is enrolled in a major political party.

(b) Substantial basis investigation. Upon the affirmative vote of not less than eight commission members to commence a substantial basis investigation, written notice of the commission's decision shall be provided to the individual who is the subject of such substantial basis investigation. Such written notice shall include a copy of the commission's rules and procedures and shall also include notification of such individual's right to be heard within thirty calendar days of the date of the commission's written notice. The commission shall also inform the individual of its rules regarding the conduct of adjudicatory proceedings and appeals and the other due process procedural mechanisms available to such individual. If the commission determines at any stage that there is no violation or that any potential conflict of interest violation has been rectified, it shall so advise the individual and the complainant, if any. All of the foregoing proceedings shall be confidential.

(c) The jurisdiction of the commission when acting pursuant to this section shall continue notwithstanding that a statewide elected official or a state officer or employee or member of the legislature or legislative employee separates from state service, or a political party chair ceases to hold such office, or a candidate ceases to be a candidate, or a lobbyist or client of a lobbyist ceases to act as such, provided that the commission notifies such individual or entity of the alleged violation of law pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision within one year from his or her separation from state service or his or her termination of party service or candidacy, or from his, her or its last report filed pursuant to article one-A of the legislative law. Nothing in this section shall serve to limit the jurisdiction of the commission in enforcement of subdivision eight of section seventy-three of the public officers law.

14. An individual subject to the jurisdiction of the commission who knowingly and intentionally violates the provisions of subdivisions two through five-a, seven, eight, twelve or fourteen through seventeen of section seventy-three of the public officers law, section one hundred seven of the civil service law, or a reporting individual who knowingly and wilfully fails to file an annual statement of financial disclosure or who knowingly and wilfully with intent to deceive makes a false statement or fraudulent omission or gives information which such individual knows to be false on such statement of financial disclosure filed pursuant to section seventy-three-a of the public officers law shall be subject to a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed forty thousand dollars and the value of any gift, compensation or benefit received as a result of such violation. An individual who knowingly and intentionally violates the provisions of paragraph a, b, c, d, e, g, or i of subdivision three of section seventy-four of the public officers law shall be subject to a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed ten thousand dollars and the value of any gift, compensation or benefit received as a result of such violation. An individual subject to the jurisdiction of the commission who knowingly and willfully violates article one-A of the legislative law shall be subject to civil penalty as provided for in that article. Except with respect to members of the legislature and legislative employees, assessment of a civil penalty hereunder shall be made by the commission with respect to persons subject to its jurisdiction. With respect to a violation of any law other than sections seventy-three, seventy-three-a, and seventy-four of the public officers law, where the commission finds sufficient cause by a vote held in the same manner as set forth in paragraph (b) of subdivision thirteen of this section, it shall refer such matter to the appropriate prosecutor for further investigation. In assessing the amount of the civil penalties to be imposed, the commission shall consider the seriousness of the violation, the amount of gain to the individual and whether the individual previously had any civil or criminal penalties imposed pursuant to this section, and any other factors the commission deems appropriate. Except with respect to members of the legislature and legislative employees, for a violation of this subdivision, other than for conduct which constitutes a violation of section one hundred seven of the civil service law, subdivisions twelve or fourteen through seventeen of section seventy-three or section seventy-four of the public officers law or article one-A of the legislative law, the commission may, in lieu of or in addition to a civil penalty, refer a violation to the appropriate prosecutor and upon such conviction, such violation shall be punishable as a class A misdemeanor. A civil penalty for false filing may not be imposed hereunder in the event a category of "value" or "amount" reported hereunder is incorrect unless such reported information is falsely understated. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, no other penalty, civil or criminal may be imposed for a failure to file, or for a false filing, of such statement, or a violation of subdivision six of section seventy-three of the public officers law, except that the appointing authority may impose disciplinary action as otherwise provided by law. The commission may refer violations of this subdivision to the appointing authority for disciplinary action as otherwise provided by law. The commission shall be deemed to be an agency within the meaning of article three of the state administrative procedure act and shall adopt rules governing the conduct of adjudicatory proceedings and appeals taken pursuant to a proceeding commenced under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules relating to the assessment of the civil penalties herein authorized and commission denials of requests for certain deletions or exemptions to be made from a financial disclosure statement as authorized in paragraph (h) or paragraph (i) of subdivision nine of this section. Such rules, which shall not be subject to the approval requirements of the state administrative procedure act, shall provide for due process procedural mechanisms substantially similar to those set forth in article three of the state administrative procedure act but such mechanisms need not be identical in terms or scope. Assessment of a civil penalty or commission denial of such a request shall be final unless modified, suspended or vacated within thirty days of imposition, with respect to the assessment of such penalty, or unless such denial of request is reversed within such time period, and upon becoming final shall be subject to review at the instance of the affected reporting individuals in a proceeding commenced against the commission, pursuant to article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules.

14-a. The joint commission on public ethics shall have jurisdiction to investigate, but shall have no jurisdiction to impose penalties upon members of or candidates for member of the legislature or legislative employees for any violation of the public officers law. If, after its substantial basis investigation, by a vote of at least eight members, two of whom are enrolled members of the investigated individual's political party if the individual is enrolled in a major political party and were appointed by a legislative leader of such political party, the joint commission on public ethics has found a substantial basis to conclude that a member of the legislature or a legislative employee or candidate for member of the legislature has violated any provisions of such laws, it shall present a written report to the legislative ethics commission, and deliver a copy of the report to the individual who is the subject of the report. Such written report shall include:

(a) the commission's findings of fact and any evidence addressed in such findings; conclusions of law and citations to any relevant law, rule, opinion, regulation or standard of conduct upon which it relied; and

(b) a determination that a substantial basis exists to conclude that a violation has occurred, and the reasons and basis for such determination.

The joint commission shall also separately provide to the legislative ethics commission copies of additional documents or other evidence considered including evidence that may contradict the joint commission's findings, the names of and other information regarding any additional witnesses, and any other materials. With respect to a violation of any law other than sections seventy-three, seventy-three-a, and seventy-four of the public officers law, where the joint commission finds sufficient cause by a vote held in the same manner as set forth in paragraph (b) of subdivision thirteen of this section, it shall refer such matter to the appropriate prosecutor.

14-b. With respect to the investigation of any individual who is not a member of the legislature or a legislative employee or candidate for member of the legislature, if after its investigation the joint commission has found a substantial basis to conclude that the individual has violated the public officers law or the legislative law, the joint commission shall send a substantial basis investigation report containing its findings of fact and conclusions of law to the individual. With respect to an individual who is a statewide elected official or a direct appointee of such an official, no violation may be found unless the majority voting in support of such a finding includes at least two members appointed by the governor and lieutenant governor and enrolled in the individual's major political party, if he or she is enrolled in a major political party. Where the subject of such investigation is a state officer or employee who is not a direct appointee of a statewide elected official, at least two of the eight or more members who vote to issue a substantial basis investigation report must have been appointed by the governor and lieutenant governor. The commission shall release such report publicly within forty-five days of its issuance.

- 14-c. With respect to an investigation of a lobbyist, if after its investigation the joint commission has found a substantial basis to conclude that the lobbyist has violated the legislative law, the joint commission shall issue a substantial basis investigation report containing its findings of fact and conclusions of law to the lobbyist and shall make public such report within forty-five days of its issuance.
- 15. A copy of any notice of delinquency or substantial basis investigation report shall be included in the reporting person's file and be available for public inspection and copying pursuant to the provisions of this section.
- 16. Upon written request from any person who is subject to the jurisdiction of the commission and the requirements of sections seventy-three, seventy-three-a or seventy-four of the public officers law, other than members of the legislature, candidates for member of the legislature and employees of the legislature, the commission shall render written advisory opinions on the requirements of said provisions. An opinion rendered by the commission, until and unless amended or revoked, shall be binding on the commission in any subsequent proceeding concerning the person who requested the opinion and who acted in good faith, unless material facts were omitted or misstated by the person in the request for an opinion. Such opinion may also be relied upon by such person, and may be introduced and shall be a defense, in any criminal or civil action. Such requests shall be confidential but the commission may publish such opinions provided that the name of the requesting person and other identifying details shall not be included in the publication.
- 17. In addition to any other powers and duties specified by law, the commission shall have the power and duty to:
 - (a) Promulgate rules concerning restrictions on outside activities and limitations on the receipt of gifts and honoraria by persons subject to its jurisdiction, provided, however, a violation of such rules in and of itself shall not be punishable pursuant to subdivision fourteen of this section unless the conduct constituting the violation would otherwise constitute a violation of this section; and

(b) Administer and enforce all the provisions of this section; and

(c) Conduct any investigation necessary to carry out the provisions of this section. Pursuant to this power and duty, the commission may administer oaths or affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance and require the production of any books or records which it may deem relevant or material;

18. Within one hundred twenty days of the effective date of this subdivision, the commission shall create and thereafter maintain a publicly accessible website which shall set forth the procedure for filing a complaint with the commission, and which shall contain the documents identified in subdivision nineteen of this section, other than financial disclosure statements filed by state officers or employees or legislative employees, and any other records or information which the commission determines to be appropriate.

19. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of article six of the public officers law, the only records of the commission which shall be available for public inspection and copying are:

 (1) the information set forth in an annual statement of financial disclosure filed pursuant to section seventy-three-a of the public officers law except the categories of value or amount, which shall remain confidential, and any other item of information deleted pursuant to paragraph (h) of subdivision nine of this section;  NB Effective until January 1, 2013

(1) the information set forth in an annual statement of financial disclosure filed pursuant to section seventy-three-a of the public officers law except information deleted pursuant to paragraph (h) of subdivision nine of this section;  NB Effective January 1, 2013

(2) notices of delinquency sent under subdivision twelve of this section;

(3) notices of civil assessments imposed under this section which shall include a description of the nature of the alleged wrongdoing, the procedural history of the complaint, the findings and determinations made by the commission, and any sanction imposed;

(4) the terms of any settlement or compromise of a complaint or referral which includes a fine, penalty or other remedy;

(5) those required to be held or maintained publicly available pursuant to article one-A of the legislative law; and

(6) substantial basis investigation reports issued by the commission pursuant to subdivision fourteen-a or fourteen-b of this section. With respect to reports concerning members of the legislature or legislative employees or candidates for member of the legislature, the joint commission shall not publicly disclose or otherwise disseminate such reports except in conformance with the requirements of paragraph (b) of subdivision nine of section eighty of the legislative law.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of article seven of the public officers law, no meeting or proceeding, including any such proceeding contemplated under paragraph (h) or (i) of subdivision nine of this section, of the commission shall be open to the public, except if expressly provided otherwise by the commission or as is required by article one-A of the legislative law.

(c) Pending any application for deletion or exemption to the commission, all information which is the subject or a part of the application shall remain confidential. Upon an adverse determination by the commission, the reporting individual may request, and upon such request the commission shall provide, that any information which is the subject or part of the application remain confidential for a period of thirty days following notice of such determination. In the event that the reporting individual resigns his office and holds no other office subject to the jurisdiction of the commission, the information shall not be made public and shall be expunged in its entirety.

20. If any part or provision of this section or the application thereof to any person or organization is adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unconstitutional or otherwise invalid, such judgment shall not affect or impair any other part or provision or the application thereof to any other person or organization, but shall be confined in its operation to such part or provision.
